

look, think, find

Tell a Story!

There are five fishing lures wiggling and playing in the gallery, but they need your help to play a game. Fill in the blanks to tell your own funny story about these fishing lures.

Give it a try on the back of this card.

There is a family of five fishing lures who live in a _____ (noun).

What is a lure? A lure is used to attract _____ (noun) when tied to the end of a fishing line.

Lures have _____ (adjective) names because of how they look.

Look closely at the lures, what are their names?

Their 5 names are _____, _____, _____, _____, _____.

The five fishing lures have a _____ (adjective) activity that they are very good at. They can _____ (action) and they can hold their _____ (noun) under the water.

When they play together in the _____ (adjective) water, they hook on to each other to make one big _____ (noun). They all wiggle with delight.

Draw what this looked like...

One day, they were surprised by a _____ (noun), but they had a secret. The five fishing lures can change _____ (adjective or a noun) and exchange polka dot patterns with each other. They love to _____ (adjective) redesign themselves.

Draw what this looked like.

The five fishing lures dance in circles, under the water, happy to be a lure.