

I DON'T WANT TO MAKE AN ARTIST STATEMENT

I don't want to make things too easy. I don't want to give away the secrets. I don't want to be obvious. I like ambiguity and uncertainty. Uneasy relationships keep one awake. I don't want to explain my work. If things are understood at first viewing, then that doesn't leave much to the imagination. If things are what they seem to be, there is no pretending, no magic. Playing at the edge is where the excitement is.
