

DESIGN IN BUFFALO

at the

New York State Museum

An exhibition of finely designed objects
from Western New York

December 18 to February 27, 1983

NEW YORK STATE MUSEUM / THE STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

DESIGN IN BUFFALO

One hundred fifty years of finely designed objects from Western New York, including examples from architecture, industry, medical technology, and decorative arts.

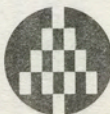

December 18 to February 27, 1983
at the

NEW YORK STATE MUSEUM
Empire State Plaza
Albany, New York

Open daily, 10-5. Admission free.
Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

Organized by the Burchfield Center, Buffalo, New York, with the support of the New York State Council on the Arts, and curated by Eric Larrabee.

NEW YORK STATE MUSEUM

THE STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT