

Jack Edson

Born in Buffalo, New York, 1950.

Education:

Bachelor of Arts, Canisius College, 1972.

Master of Library Science, University of Rhode Island, 1974.

Recent Exhibitions:

Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum, Golden, Colorado: "Evolutions, 2017"

Nichols School Art Gallery: "Pieces; the art of Jack Edson" 2017

Indigo Art, Buffalo, New York: "Intentions" 2016-2017

Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum, Golden, Colorado: "No Girls Allowed" 2016

Burchfield Penney Art Center, "Art in Craft Media 2015"

Echo Art Fair, 2015, Buffalo & Erie County Public Library

Collection: Gerald Mead, Buffalo, New York

Publications:

"Jack Edson at Nichols School" by Jack Foran. The Public, March 22, 2017, p. 10.

"Hamburg male librarian journeys into the world of quilting" by Michelle Kearns. Buffalo News, February 19, 2016.

"Hamburg man sews masterpieces" by Mike Randall, WKBW television news piece, January, 10, 2017.

Crafty Planner: Episode #64: Jack Edson, podcast, May 23, 2016.

"Meetin' place: Jack Edson" by Barbara Eikmeier. Quilters Newsletter, October-November, 2016.